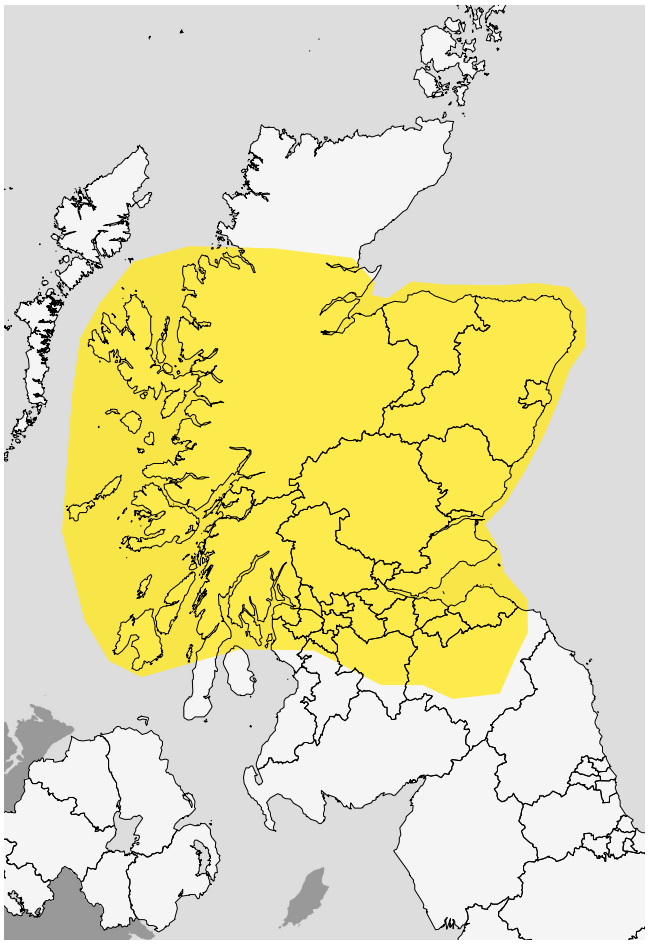
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Sat 7 Oct 2023 and
06:00 Sun 8 Oct 2023



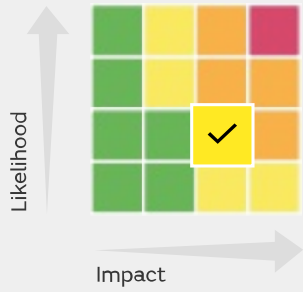
Heavy and persistent rain this weekend may cause flooding and disruption across parts of Scotland

What to expect

- Homes and businesses could be flooded, causing damage to some buildings
- Fast flowing or deep floodwater is possible, causing a danger to life
- Delays or cancellations to train and bus services are possible
- Spray and flooding is likely to lead to difficult driving conditions and some road closures
- Some communities may be cut off by flooded roads
- Possible power cuts and loss of other services to some homes and businesses

Further details

Rain is expected to develop across many parts of Scotland during Friday afternoon but is likely to persist through much of Saturday into Sunday morning before gradually easing. There remains some uncertainty in the longevity and amount of rainfall, particularly across northeast Scotland and eastern portions of the Central Belt. However, there is an increasing likelihood of some low lying areas seeing 50-75 mm of rain whilst over higher ground 100-120 mm is possible, perhaps in excess of this in a few locations across western Scotland.



Low likelihood of medium impacts
